

Enock Ngendahimana

He has over 8 years of experience in data Quality Control, Data analysis and Socio-economic consulting services to clients in the Socio-economic industry. He specializes in Data Management and Data Analysis. He has specialization in Business Analytics for Decision Making and Communicating Business Analytics Results from University of Colorado and has Bachelor's degree in Applied Statistics from National University of Rwanda. He is expert in Statistical Software such as STATA, SPSS, and Data Monitoring and Data Collection with SurveyCTO. He worked in various National and International Organizations (World Bank, Care International, Handicap International, Compassion, World Vision, African Development Bank, EDCL, USAID etc.) He has been with CIDRA for the past 8 years.

www.cidragroup.com